Denine received the Y.A.M award from the NOBIDAN group at FNCE. Below is more information about the group and her award.

Congratulations Denine!

The National Organization of Blacks in Dietetics and Nutrition (NOBIDAN) has served members for over 50 years as a networking group. In 2008, NOBIDAN became the fourth Member Interest Group of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics.

Focus:

The National Organization of Blacks in Dietetics and Nutrition (NOBIDAN) is a professional organization of African-American dietetic and nutrition practitioners whose mission is to provide a forum for professional development and support of dietetic, optimal nutrition and well-being for the general public, particularly those of African descent.

The purpose of the Golden Yam Award is to formally recognize a NOBIDAN member who has demonstrated outstanding leadership and service to the Academy, NOBIDAN and/or African-Americans in the US or abroad and has contributed to the advancement of African-Americans in Dietetics. The word YAM means You Are Magnificent. The first recipient of the Golden Yam Award was announced at the 2012 Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo (FNCE) in Philadelphia, PA.

Fellows Membership

The Fellow of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics (FAND) recognizes Academy members who have distinguished themselves among their colleagues, as well as in their communities, by their service to the dietetics profession and by optimizing the nation's health through food and nutrition. This is the first year that the Academy has recognized the hard work of the fellows that they gave them a luncheon, a ribbon that indicate that they are a fellow and let them sit in the front row during the Opening Session at FNCE 2015.
